PART A. OPERATION OF THE CORPORATION

ARTICLE 1 - OFFICES

SECTION 1. PRINCIPAL OFFICE

The principal office of the corporation for the transaction of its business is located at 10016 Pioneer Blvd., Suite 101, Santa Fe Springs, Los Angeles County, California 90670.

SECTION 2. CHANGE OF ADDRESS

The county of the corporation's principal office can be changed only by amendment of these Bylaws and not otherwise. The Board of Directors may, however, change the principal office from one location to another within the named county by noting the changed address and effective date below, and such changes of address shall not be deemed an amendment of these Bylaws:

5500 East Atherton Street, Suite 227B, Long Beach, Los Angeles County, California 90817-4017 Dated: March 1, 2000

_____ Dated: _____, _____

_____ Dated: _____, _____

SECTION 3. OTHER OFFICES

The corporation may also have offices at such other places within or without the State of California where it is qualified to do business as its business may require and as the Board of Directors may, from time to time, designate.

ARTICLE 2 - PURPOSE

The specific aim and primary purpose of Compulsive Eaters Anonymous-HOW is to assist those persons who acknowledge their problem of eating compulsively and to aid them in the process of recovery from that disease. The general purpose and intent is to promote public and personal health and to work with and provide charitable and cultural assistance to those with the problems of compulsive eating and food addiction.

ARTICLE 3 - MEMBERS

SECTION 1. NO MEMBERS¹

This corporation makes no provision for members pursuant to Section 5310(b) of the Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law of the State of California. Any action, which would otherwise under law require approval by a majority of all members or approval by the members, shall only require the approval of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 4 - BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. NUMBER

The Corporation shall have a maximum of thirteen (13) Directors and collectively they shall be known as the Board of Directors. The number of Directors may be changed by amendment of these Bylaws.

SECTION 2. CHARGE

The Board of Directors of Compulsive Eaters Anonymous-HOW, Inc. (“CEA-HOW”), has but one purpose, that of serving the Fellowship of CEA-HOW. It is an agency created and designated by the Fellowship to maintain services for those who are seeking through CEA-HOW the means for arresting the disease of compulsive eating through the application to their own lives, in whole or in part, of the Twelve Steps, Traditions, Concepts of Service, CEA-HOW Concept and Seven Tools, which constitute the recovery program upon which the Fellowship of CEA-HOW is founded. The Board of Directors of Compulsive Eaters Anonymous-HOW (hereinafter referred to as the “Board”) claims no proprietary right in the recovery program, the Twelve Steps, Traditions, Concepts of Service, CEA-HOW Concept and Seven Tools, because, as all spiritual truths, they may now be regarded as available to all mankind. However, because these Twelve Steps, Traditions, Concepts of Service, CEA-HOW Concept and Seven Tools have proven to constitute an effective spiritual basis for life which, if followed, arrests the disease of compulsive eating, the Board of Directors asserts the negative right of preventing, so far as it may within its power so to do, any modification, alteration, or extension of these Twelve Steps, Traditions, Concepts of Service, CEA-HOW Concept and Seven Tools, except at the insistence of the Fellowship of CEA-HOW in keeping with these Bylaws which may from time to time be amended.

SECTION 3. COMPOSITION

The Board of Directors shall consist of a maximum of thirteen (13) members: Eight (8) Participating Directors, three (3) Non-Participating Directors and the Founders, Rae Z. and Fred S². Should a Founder choose not to serve, such office shall be unfilled but not vacant. No other person shall be elected to replace either Founder. If a Founder desires to return to the Board after an absence, such Founder may resume his or her position upon receiving a majority vote of the Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting. The Founders are subject to Section 17 below. The Board of Directors shall ¹ Members” in this case is a legal term referring to individuals who have a financial or fiduciary interest in a corporation.

If given by telephone or other electronic means, the notice shall be deemed to be delivered when electronically transmitted to the Director in a manner authorized by the Director. Such notices shall be addressed to each Director at his or her address as shown on the books of the corporation. Notice of the time and place of holding an adjourned meeting need not be given to absent Directors if the time and place of the adjourned meeting are fixed at the meeting adjourned and if such adjourned meeting is held no more than twenty-four (24) hours from the time of the original meeting. Notice shall be given of any adjourned regular or special meeting to Directors absent from the original meeting if the adjourned meeting is held more than twenty-four (24) hours from the time of the original meeting.

SECTION 24. CONTENTS OF NOTICE

The purpose of any regular Board meeting need not be specified in the notice. The primary purpose of any Special Board Meeting shall be specified in the notice.

SECTION 25. WAIVER OF NOTICE AND CONSENT TO HOLDING MEETINGS

The transactions of any meeting of the Board, however called and noticed or wherever held, are as valid as though the meeting had been duly held after proper call and notice, provided a quorum, as hereinafter defined, is present and provided that either before or after the meeting each Director not present signs a waiver of notice, a consent to holding the meeting, or an approval of the minutes thereof. All such waivers, consents, or approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made part of the minutes of the meeting.

- d) The Directors present at a duly called and held meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to do business notwithstanding the loss of a quorum at the meeting due to a withdrawal of Directors from the meeting, provided that any action thereafter taken must be approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for such meeting or such greater percentage as may be required by law, or the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws of this corporation.

SECTION 27. MAJORITY ACTION AS BOARD ACTION

Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the Directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present is the act of the Board of Directors, unless the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws of this corporation, or provisions of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law, particularly those provisions relating to appointment of committees (Section 5212), and indemnification of Directors (Section 5238e), require a greater percentage or different voting rules for approval of a matter by the Board.

SECTION 28. PROXY VOTING

Directors entitled to vote shall have the right to vote either in person or by a written proxy executed by such person or by his or her duly authorized agent and filed with the Secretary of the corporation, provided, however, that no proxy shall be valid after six (6) months from the date of its execution. No proxy shall be irrevocable and may be revoked by appearance of the Director who provided the proxy or by written revocation delivered to the Secretary of the Corporation or as provided by following the procedures given in Section 5613 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law. Proxies shall afford an opportunity for the Directors to specify a choice between approval and disapproval for each matter or group of related matters intended, at the time the proxy is distributed, to be acted upon at the meeting for which the proxy is solicited. The proxy shall also provide that when the person solicited specifies a choice with respect to any such matter, the vote shall be cast in accordance therewith.

SECTION 29. CONDUCT OF MEETINGS

- a) Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be presided over by the Chair of the Board, or, in the Chair's absence, by the Vice Chair of the Board, or in the Vice Chair's absence, by the President of the corporation or, in his or her absence, by the Vice President of the corporation or, in the absence of each of these persons, by a Chair chosen by a majority of the Directors present at the meeting. The Secretary of the corporation shall act as secretary of all meetings of the Board. If the Secretary is absent, the presiding officer shall appoint another person to act as Secretary of the Meeting.
- b) Meetings shall be governed by the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised as such rules may be revised from time to time, insofar as such rules are not inconsistent with or in conflict with these Bylaws, with the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation, or with provisions of law.
- c) The Chair and the Vice Chair of the Board of Directors shall be elected by majority vote of the members of the Board of Directors at the annual meetings of the Board of Directors and shall serve one year. No individual shall serve as Chair for more than three (3) consecutive years.
- d) Meetings will be open to CEA-HOW participants who may observe but may not vote or speak unless the Board specifically invites comment. Meetings may be closed for confidential reasons.
- e) The first meeting of the Board of Directors after the election of Directors at the World Service Business Conference (see Section 13(a) above) shall be conducted as follows:
 1. The meeting shall be chaired temporarily by the highest ranking Board Member as follows: previous year's Chair, previous year's Vice-Chair, the President, the Vice-President, the Treasurer, the Secretary, a Founder, the longest serving Participating Board Member. In the event of a tie, the tie shall be broken by the flip of a coin or other random selection device.
 2. Any vacancies in Participating or Non-Participating Directors shall be filled. Any person so selected, if in attendance, shall assume office immediately and shall participate in the meeting as a voting member.
 3. The Board, now filled, shall elect a Chair of the Board of Directors. All Directors may participate in the election of the Chair.
 4. Other business shall then be conducted.
 5. To have closure of Board members who were not re-elected there will be a ceremony at the end of each World Service Business Conference.

SECTION 30. ACTION BY UNANIMOUS WRITTEN CONSENT WITHOUT MEETING

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors under any provision of law may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the Board shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board. Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as the unanimous vote of the Directors. Any certificate or other document filed under any provision of law which relates to action so taken shall state that the action was taken by unanimous written consent of the Board of Directors without a meeting and that the Bylaws of this corporation authorize the Directors to so act and such statement shall be prima facie evidence of such authority.

SECTION 31. NOMINATION OF DIRECTORS

a) Participating Directors:

The nominations for Participating Director shall be made by the Delegates to the World Service Business Conference at the World Service Business Conference.

b) Non-Participating Directors:

The Nominating Committee shall propose to the Board of Directors two or three nominees for each Non-Participating Directors vacancy that arises.

PART B. PHILOSOPHY

ARTICLE 13 - TWELVE STEPS

1. We admitted we were powerless over food—that our lives had become unmanageable.
2. Came to believe that a Power greater than ourselves could restore us to sanity.
3. Made a decision to turn our will and our lives over to the care of God as we understood Him.
4. Made a searching and fearless moral inventory of ourselves.
5. Admitted to God, to ourselves, and to another human being the exact nature of our wrongs.
6. Were entirely ready to have God remove all these defects of character.
7. Humbly asked Him to remove our shortcomings.
8. Made a list of all persons we had harmed, and became willing to make amends to them all.
9. Made direct amends to such people wherever possible, except when to do so would injure them or others.
10. Continued to take personal inventory and when we were wrong promptly admitted it.
11. Sought through prayer and meditation to improve our conscious contact with God as we understood Him, praying only for knowledge of His will for us and the power to carry that out.
12. Having had a spiritual awakening as the result of these steps, we tried to carry this message to compulsive eaters, and to practice these principles in all our affairs.

ARTICLE 14 - TWELVE TRADITIONS

1. Our common welfare should come first; personal recovery depends upon CEA-HOW unity.
2. For our group purpose there is but one ultimate authority—a loving God as He may express Himself in our group conscience. Our leaders are but trusted servants; they do not govern.
3. The only requirement for CEA-HOW membership is a desire to stop eating compulsively.
4. Each group should be autonomous except in matters affecting other groups or CEA-HOW as a whole.
5. Each group has but one primary purpose— to carry its message to the compulsive eater who still suffers.
6. A CEA-HOW group ought never endorse, finance, or lend the CEA-HOW name to any related facility or outside enterprise, lest problems of money, property, and prestige divert us from our primary purpose.
7. Every CEA-HOW group ought to be fully self-supporting, declining outside contributions.
8. Compulsive Eaters Anonymous-HOW should remain forever non-professional, but our service centers may employ special workers.

9. CEA-HOW, as such, ought never be organized; but we may create service boards or committees directly responsible to those they serve.
10. Compulsive Eaters Anonymous-HOW has no opinion on outside issues; hence the CEA-HOW name ought never to be drawn into public controversy.
11. Our public relations policy is based on attraction rather than promotion; we need always maintain personal anonymity at the level of press, radio and other public media of communication.
12. Anonymity is the spiritual foundation of all our traditions, ever reminding us to place principles before personalities.

ARTICLE 15 - TWELVE CONCEPTS OF SERVICE

1. The ultimate responsibility and authority for CEA-HOW general services resides in the collective conscience of our Fellowship.
2. The CEA-HOW Groups have delegated to the World Service Business Conference the active maintenance of our services; thus, the World Service Business Conference is the voice, authority and effective conscience of CEA-HOW as a whole.
3. The Right of Decision, based on trust, makes effective leadership possible.
4. Throughout the service structure, we ought to maintain at all responsible levels a traditional "Right of Participation," taking care that each classification or Group of our world servants shall be allowed a voting representation in reasonable proportion to the responsibility that each must discharge.
5. Individuals have the right of appeal and petition in order to ensure that their opinions and personal grievances will be carefully considered.
6. The World Service Business Conference has entrusted the Board of Directors with the primary responsibility for the administration of CEA-HOW
7. The Board of Directors has legal rights and responsibilities accorded to them by CEA-HOW Bylaws; the rights and responsibilities of the World Service Business Conference are accorded to it by tradition.
8. The Board of Directors may delegate to its Executive Committee the responsibility of overseeing the World Service Office.
9. Able trusted servants, together with sound and appropriate methods of choosing them, are indispensable for effective functioning at all service levels.
10. Every service responsibility should be matched by an equal service authority - the scope of such authority always to be defined well whether by tradition, by resolution, by specific job description or by appropriate bylaws.
11. Directors' administration of the World Service Office should be assisted by the best standing committees, executives, staffs, and consultants.
12. The spiritual foundation of CEA-HOW service ensures that:
 - a) No CEA-HOW committee or service body shall ever become the seat of perilous wealth or power;

- b) Sufficient operating funds, plus an ample reserve, shall be CEA-HOW's prudent financial principle;
- c) No CEA-HOW member shall ever be placed in a position of qualified authority;
- d) All important decisions shall be reached by discussion, by vote, and whenever possible, by consensus;
- e) No service action shall ever be personally punitive or incite public controversy; and
- f) No CEA-HOW service committee or service Board shall ever perform any acts of government and each shall always remain democratic in thought and action.

ARTICLE 16 - THE CEA-HOW CONCEPT

The Compulsive Eaters Anonymous-HOW Concept has been formed to offer the compulsive eater who accepts the Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions as a program of recovery a disciplined and structured approach. The CEA-HOW Groups have been formed in the belief that our disease is absolute and therefore only absolute acceptance of the CEA-HOW Concept will offer any sustained abstinence to those of us whose compulsion has reached a critical level.

Therefore, the CEA-HOW plan of eating, steps, traditions and tools of recovery are not suggested. Rather, we accept them as requirements for our recovery.

Meetings are dedicated to the concept of remaining Honest, Open-minded, and Willing to listen—this is the HOW of the program. We pray that the collective group conscience and love that these ideals offer us will promote a strong sense of security that will enable us to experience a new unity and wholeness with all those around us and that the CEA-HOW ideal will help us to progress in our program of recovery on a daily basis.

To be certain, much of our strength is found in the structure of meetings and in the daily adherence to the program as it is written in our literature.

Each Group also firmly understands that after our recovery has begun through abstinence and the taking of the first three steps, our further surrender to the additional steps of recovery offers us a promise of happiness, contentment, and achievement in all areas of our lives.

We ensure our continued and sustained abstinence from compulsive eating by being forever aware that God is doing for us what we have never been able to do for ourselves.

May God, as each of us understands Him, open our minds and hearts to the love which is manifest in this room. Amen.

ARTICLE 17 - THE SEVEN TOOLS

1. CEA-HOW ABSTINENCE FOOD PLAN: Three meals daily, weighed and measured, with nothing between except diet soda, no-calorie beverages, and sugar-free gum. Food is written down, called in, and committed, so we can get on with our recovery and "out" of the food. It is recommended that you obtain your physician's or health care professional's approval before beginning your abstinence using the CEA-HOW food plan. Any recommendations your physician or health care professional makes will be accepted.
2. LITERATURE & WRITING: We use Alcoholics Anonymous' "The Big Book" and A.A.'s "Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions" as tools of examination and release. Our writing assignments for the first 30 days are taken from them. When we substitute the words "compulsive eater" for "alcoholic" and "food" for "alcohol", we feel we identify absolutely. We believe that negative thinking is a large part of our disease, so we are learning, one day at a time, to abstain from negative thinking.

3. ANONYMITY: Who you see here, what you hear here, when you leave here, let it stay here. When we meet another member in the outside world, we do not mention that they are members of CEA-HOW.
4. TELEPHONE CALLS: We are required to make four calls a day—one to our sponsor and three to other CEA-HOW members. The phone is like a lifeline; we need the contact; it can be like a mini-meeting.
5. MEETINGS: We must attend three meetings a week. Those members who have at least 30 days of continuous CEA-HOW abstinence may pitch. Those members who have at least seven days of continuous CEA-HOW abstinence may pitch if their pitching has been discussed with their sponsor.
6. SERVICE: Service is abstinence—the greatest service to ourselves. Service is coming to meetings on time; being a leader or speaker; volunteering to be a service person such as a program chairperson, coffee person, treasurer, secretary, literature person, intergroup representative, etc. Service is CEA-HOW. Service is putting away chairs when necessary, picking up after the meeting, being quiet when a member is sharing. Service is one way to get involved in the program. Service is needed at all levels and at every meeting. Service is giving of ourselves to help CEA-HOW continue to function. Let's all get involved to help CEA-HOW, because we all know that: Service is freedom from bondage of self.
7. SPONSORSHIP: A sponsor is a compulsive eater who -- thank God -- has 30 days of back-to-back CEA-HOW abstinence. A sponsor will help you work through the 12 Steps. Everyone in CEA-HOW is sponsored according to the same guidelines. Sponsors MUST have 30 days of abstinence, have completed 30 days of questions, and have taken the first three steps.
