

A decorative border of autumn leaves and berries surrounds the text. The leaves are in shades of orange, yellow, and green, with some showing detailed vein patterns. The berries are small, round, and orange. The border is composed of several branches and leaves, some of which are curled or twisted, creating a frame around the central text.

Giving Thanks by Giving Back

During this season of gratitude, we invite you to reflect on what your recovery means to you and to consider making a 7th Tradition
contribution directly to the WSO.
Your generosity helps ensure that CEA-HOW continues to be here —
for those who still suffer.
