poem

Said the sponsor to the sponsee...

Pray for the willingness that's the key
Living one day at a time
Sugar, flour, and volume free
Carrying the message, so others can see
It is possible to live abstinently.

It's an anonymous fellowship
In touch with reality
Keeping us honest
We place principles before personalities.

There is no mystery
At ourselves we take a deep look
We come to believe in recovery
As we follow the simple steps in the Big Book.

We read.. We write
We attend meetings, some during the day, some at night.
We use the phone
We must keep reminding ourselves we can't do it alone.

Said the Sponsee to the Sponsor...

But I want to be the Director and run the whole show
It's just so hard, so hard to let go
Can't I stay and do it my way?

Said the sponsor to the sponsee...

With love in her heart and a direct reminder
The sponsor says... we keep coming back
Believing God will help us we just have to ask
We continue to pray
Just for today.
